I OLLIDAY STREET THEATRE, BALTIMORE.—
I Notice to Stars.—This favorite theater has, during the summer, been entirely altered, re-fitted and decorated, at an expense of over $6,000 and made one of the handsomet theatres in the Union. Artistos (both native and foreign, desirous of visiting Baltimore profossionally) will find it decidedly to their advantage to engage at this establishment; besides being acknowledged as the legitimate and fashionable theatre of the city, it possesses the great advantage of a central location, and also of being contiguous to all the principal hotels. An admirable Stock Company is engaged, and Stars may be eatisfied that no effort shall be wanting on the part of the Managers to present their pieces in a style superior to which they have ever been done in Baltimere.
